

Alaska ShoreZone Workshop Agenda:
Applications of the dataset, using web tools and GIS layers

2011 Alaska Marine Science Symposium

Tuesday, January 18th 4:30-6:00pm

Adventure Room, Hotel Captain Cook

Mandy Lindeberg, NOAA, Alaska Fisheries Science Center
John Harper, Coastal and Ocean Resources
Mary Morris, Archipelago Marine Research
Sue Saupe, Cook Inlet RCAC
Darcy Dugan, AOS

- 4:30 - 4:45      Introduction – Mandy Lindeberg
- 4:45 - 5:30      Tutorial of web tools and creating your own GIS layers by John Harper
- Scenario 1 – Metlaktla Spill Response Example (Metlakatla Ferry Incident)
(How can ShoreZone data be used to improve response?)
  - Scenario 2 – Katmai Coast “Marine Debris” Example
(How can ShoreZone info be used to improve search strategies?)
  - Scenario 3 – Port Development Example
(How can ShoreZone data be used to assist with development permitting?)
- 5:30 - 5:45      Demonstration of new Adobe Flash application for ShoreZone imagery – Sue Saupe
- 5:45 - 6:00      Further Q & A with attendees.

Note: there will be supplemental handouts for folks and beverages. Please join us.